Module Specification: ED256 English Language Teaching Methods

Course Title:	English Language Teaching Methods
Course Code:	ED256
Number of Hours:	4 credit hours
Type of Course:	Elective
Level:	1
Pre-requisites:	EL112
Course Objectives	The students will be able to have a general understanding of the various English Language teaching methods in order to adopt some of these approaches and guidelines when teaching English as a Foreign Language.  The students will be able to:  1. Appreciate the educational foundations and techniques of modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. Apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  3. Develop their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing the relevance and efficiency of activities and methods  4. Prepare and write well-organized lesson plans.  5. Construct and develop diverse activities relevant to the covered chapter to support the learning process  6. Use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere when Teaching English as a Foreign Language.
Course Description and Contents:	<ul> <li>This course addresses the following topics and chapters:         <ul> <li>Traditional Approaches to Teaching English as a Foreign Language including the Grammar Translation Method, the Direct Method, Description, the Audio-Lingual Method, and their analysis</li> <li>Current Teaching Approaches &amp; Models including the Communicative Approach, the Natural Approach and Krashen's 5 Hypotheses, the Content Based Instruction and the Task Based Instruction</li> <li>Effective and Reflective Teaching</li> <li>Teaching Listening Comprehension</li> <li>Teaching Reading Comprehension</li> <li>Teaching Writing</li> <li>Vocabulary Teaching &amp; Learning</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Learning Outcomes:	A. Knowledge and Understanding     At the end of this course, students should know and

2. the foundations and pedagogical implications of each of the covered methods 3. the nature and approaches to teaching English skills 4. the standards and formats of lesson plans along with their components 5. the significance of the use of technology and means to integrate in the English lessons 8. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to: 4. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 4. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 5. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan at ke initiative and be creative het teaching English lessons Practical Examples and Tasks Assessment Strategy:  Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases D. 20 hours of English Language Issan planing, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capa
3. the nature and approaches to teaching English skills 4. the standards and formats of lesson plans along with their components 5. the significance of the use of technology and means to integrate in the English lessons 8. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts 5. PowerPoint Presentations 4. Assigned Reading Material 1. Interactive Discussions 5. Practical Examples and Tasks 6. Analysis of Cases 7. TiMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills 8. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. Johours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills		, J J
4. the standards and formats of lesson plans along with their components 5. the significance of the use of technology and means to integrate in the English lessons 8. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • Power Point Presentations • Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teachi components 5. the significance of the use of technology and means to integrate in the English lessons B. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Feaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material   Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.
5. the significance of the use of technology and means to integrate in the English lessons B. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Feaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.		, , integrate in the English lessons B. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Feaching Methodology:  A 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodology AOU publishing- 2007		·
B. Cognitive Skills At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 2 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
At the end of his course, students will be able to:  1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Feaching Methodology:  A 1TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
1. improve their analytical and critical thinking skills as educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching lextbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.
educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. MicI-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.		At the end of his course, students will be able to:
educators and teachers when assessing any course material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. MicI-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.
material or activity 2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology. 3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases Analysis of Cases A 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing-2007 Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
2. analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology.  3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing-2007 Spirro, J. (2013). Changing Methodology is in TESOL. Edinburgh:		, main methods for teaching English as a foreign language, such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology.  3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 - Sepiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodology is in TESOL. Edinburgh:		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · such as the communicative approach, and their implications in teaching methodology.  3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		<ol><li>analyze the usefulness and relevance of a variety of the</li></ol> implications in teaching methodology.  3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		main methods for teaching English as a foreign language,
3. evaluate the applicability and effectiveness of some English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations  Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases Analysis of Cases Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
English Teaching textbooks C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh: Supporting learning materials Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		, ,
C. Practical Professional Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to:  1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh: Supporting learning materials Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary  2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom  3. develop well-designed lesson plans  4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan  3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations  • Assigned Reading Material  • Interactive Discussions  • Practical Examples and Tasks  • Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
1. acquire practical approaches for teaching listening comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TIMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary 2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		At the end of this course, , students will be able to:
2. design games and interactive activities that would foster both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to: 1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing-2007 Supporting learning materials Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		<ol> <li>acquire practical approaches for teaching listening</li> </ol>
both learning and motivation in the classroom 3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing-2007  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		comprehension, reading, writing, and vocabulary
3. develop well-designed lesson plans 4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing-2007  Supporting learning materials		<ol><li>design games and interactive activities that would foster</li></ol>
4. use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan  3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations  • Assigned Reading Material  • Interactive Discussions  • Practical Examples and Tasks  • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials		both learning and motivation in the classroom on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in the classroom  D. Key or Transferrable Skills  At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan  3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations  Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		develop well-designed lesson plans the classroom D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		use technology effectively in their classes and capitalize
D. Key or Transferrable Skills At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		on its attributes to foster a more interactive atmosphere in
At the end of this course, , students will be able to:  1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan  3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		the classroom
1. apply various techniques and principles deriving from the modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language 2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		D. Key or Transferrable Skills modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		At the end of this course, , students will be able to:
modern approaches for Teaching English as a Foreign Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons  4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		apply various techniques and principles deriving from the Language  2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
2. plan and develop an English Language lesson plan 3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		1
3. take initiative and be creative when teaching English lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  • PowerPoint Presentations • Assigned Reading Material • Interactive Discussions • Practical Examples and Tasks • Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials lessons 4. research for new material and adapt its content to class needs and social contexts  Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
Teaching Methodology:  PowerPoint Presentations Assigned Reading Material Interactive Discussions Practical Examples and Tasks Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		4. research for new material and adapt its content to class
<ul> <li>Assigned Reading Material</li> <li>Interactive Discussions</li> <li>Practical Examples and Tasks</li> <li>Analysis of Cases</li> <li>Assessment Strategy:         <ul> <li>A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills</li> <li>B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content</li> <li>C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities</li> <li>D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.</li> </ul> </li> <li>The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007</li> <li>Supporting learning materials</li> <li>-Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:</li> </ul>		·
Interactive Discussions     Practical Examples and Tasks     Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:	Teaching Methodology:	PowerPoint Presentations
Practical Examples and Tasks     Analysis of Cases  Assessment Strategy:      A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills     B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content     C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities     D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		Assigned Reading Material
Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		Interactive Discussions
Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		Practical Examples and Tasks
Assessment Strategy:  A. 1 TMA that calls for researching, planning, creativity, and adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		· adaptation skills  B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book:  English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials  -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:	Assessment Strategy:
B. Mid-Term and Final Exams that cover an analysis of the course content C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:	] course content  C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
communication capabilities  D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		·
D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		C. In class Presentations that assess initiative and
D. 20 hours of English Lab at AOU LRC that improve students' grammar and vocabulary skills.  The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007  Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:		communication capabilities
The teaching Course Book: English Language Teaching Methodology AOU publishing- 2007 Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
Supporting learning materials -Spiro, J. (2013). Changing Methodologies in TESOL. Edinburgh:
Edinburgh University Press.
		Edinburgh University Press.

	-Linse, C. (2006). Practical English Language Teaching: Young Learners . New York, McGraw-Hill.
Tutor name and contact details	Dr. Marine Milad marine@aou.edu.kw