Electronic Newsletter

AOU
الجامعة العربية المفتوحة
Arab Open University

AGFUND
برنامج الخليج العربي للتنمية - أجفند

President Office

Group Iftar for Employees and their Families – Oman

In an effort to enhance social interaction and team spirit in the work environment, the university's management organized a group Iftar for employees and their families in the presence of Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al-Badi, the university's president, and a large number of employees. The Iftar provided an opportunity to exchange conversations and strengthen personal relationships among colleagues, contributing to building a positive work environment that enhances productivity and collaboration within the university.

AOU team in KSA has achieved place in Hackathon

The Open Arab University congratulates Bilal Munir, a student at the College of Computer Studies, for coming in second place in the second edition of the Education Hackathon - Artificial Intelligence track, which was organized by the Tamayoz platform in collaboration with the Deanship of Student Affairs at Umm Al-Qura University, This challenge brings a group of Saudi university students and graduates together who aim to create innovative solutions in education services. Up to 300 teams participated in this challenge, Bilal Munir and his team stood out and were able to achieve the second place with their project "Librery."

Student at the Arab Open University in Egypt Wins First Place in Entrepreneurship Competition and Qualifies for African Championship - Egypt

Abdullah Mohamed Zidan, a student at the Arab Open University in Egypt, from the Faculty of Computing and Information, won first place in the Founders live Cairo competition in its fourth round held in Egypt under the sponsorship of EGBank. Thus, Abdullah Mohamed Zidan has been qualified to compete at the African level. He participated in the competition with his company, Re-Tec, which specializes in electronic waste recycling, environmental preservation, and contributing to the provision of raw materials and energy.

AOU and the Higher judicial Institute signed MoU – Oman

The AOU in Oman and the Higher judicial Institute signed a Memorandum of Understanding in scientific and academic fields, in line with their efforts to develop joint scientific research and legal and judicial studies that serve common interests. Signed by Prof. Mohammed bin Hamdan Al Badi, President of the Arab Open University, and Dr. Nabil bin Rashid Al Mawali, Dean of the Higher Judicial Institute, in the presence of Dr. Hussein Al Ghafari, Dean of the Faculty of Law.

AOU in Jordan holds Iftar – Jordan

In line with social responsibility towards the local community, the AOU, in collaboration with Master's students in Educational Technology, organized an Iftar for 60 orphans last Sunday on the campus. The gathering involved various competitions and activities. At the end of the event, attended by faculty and administrative members, gifts were distributed to the children by Dr. Mufid Abu Musa, the university's Assistant Director for Academic Affairs, and Dr. Nabil Abu Laghdah, the Head of Student Affairs Department.

Student at the Arab Open University in Egypt Wins Third Place in Artificial Intelligence Olympiad

Saif Mohammed Jameel, a student at the Arab Open University in Egypt, won the third place in the Artificial Intelligence Olympiad held at Al- Alamein International University in Egypt. With this win, Saif Mohammed Jameel qualified to compete at the Arab level in Jordan, scheduled to take place on April 20th. The Artificial Intelligence Olympiad witnessed participation from 282 students and competed with 66 projects in areas such as computer vision and embedded systems.

AOU in Kuwait: Aim to Train Students and Enhance Their Literary Skills Through Workshops - Kuwait

The English Language and Literature Department organized a workshop titled "Analysis Using Close Reading of Excerpts from Various Literary Texts" presented by Ghadeer Al-Sand and Hanin Shalabi to train students in the Faculty of Languages on understanding the concept of close reading in literature and its application to literary texts.

International Teaching Week Program - Oman

The Faculty of Computer Studies at the Arab Open University, represented by Dr. Yousef Al-Husseini, participated in the International Teaching Week program organized by Christ University, Bangalore, India, with a selection of academics from international universities to exchange academic knowledge. Dr. Yousef Al-Husseini conducted an intensive six-day program for master's and doctoral students entitled "Unleashing the Power of Deep Learning".

AOU in Bahrain organizings Iftar on roads

The Student Affairs and Graduates Department at Arab Open University, Kingdom of Bahrain, organized the "Iftar meal on the Road" initiative, A group of university students participated in the event by distributing Iftar meals to drivers at traffic intersections near the University, just before the Maghrib call to prayer on Wednesday March 27, 2024, with the grateful support of the General Directorate of Traffic.